The Industrial Edition of The Sun is on sale at Avera's and Vidal's newsstands. Get a copy and send it to your friends.

J. R. Wells of Jacksonville, State manager of the Singer Sewing Machine company, was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

Ladies, let us show you our samples of visiting cards. The new Tiffany script is now all the rage. All sizes and thickness cards in stock.

Sick headache results from a derangement of the stomach and is cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Sold by all druggists.

J. M. Devenau has returned from a visit to the West End, where he has been on business connected with the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

Miss Helene Kohlhaas of Knoxville, Tenn., has arrived in the city, and will remain here for some time as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. K. Abrams.

Father B. O'Reilly of Jacksonville, one of the most prominent Catholic priests in the State, is here on a few days' visit to his friend, Father P. J. Lynch.

Get your money's worth. Ask your grocer for Blue Ribbon Lemon or Vanilla. Absolutely pure, goes twice as far as other kinds and the flavor is perfection.

D. E. Godwin and E. B. Godwin, managers of the Chase naval stores farms at Fairbanks and Paradise, respectively, were business visitors to this city yesterday.

W. T. Chesnut, the merchant of Arredondo, was in the city yesterday. He came for two good reasons—one to visit his family, and the other to attend the wedding of his friend, Evans Haile, and Miss Maud Graham.

N. A. Mathews and daughter, Miss Flora, were in the city from Campville yesterday. Mr. Mathews, who is one of the best known and most prominent citizens of the East End, called and renewed his subscription to The Sun, also the subscription of G. W. Davis of Hawthorn, another old and valued friend and subscriber to this paper.

Admission to the musical festival, which will be held at the Tabernacle tonight, only 25 cents. Dr. Strouse, through the instrumentality of whom this able talent, as well as the little Misses Till and others were brought here, is very desirous of having them honored with a good attendance, as a token of appreciation by the people of Gainesville.

Fred Young of Lake City, one of the cleverest and most prominent young men of Columbia county, is in the city on business. Mr. Young is the son of the late Capt. James W. Young, deceased, than whom there was no better or more faithful soldier in the Confederate service. Fred is "a chip of the old block," which accounts for his clever manner and his popularity. He has many friends here who are always glad to welcome him.

Mobile, Ala., Feb. 16, 1899.
Dear Sir: During the past year we have sold over twenty-four dozen "Hall's Great Discovery" for kidney and bladder troubles, and during that time have received no complaint.
Yours respectfully,
G. VAN ANTWERP & SON.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. Box 626, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by J. W. McCallister & Co.

Wanted—Book-keeper and commissary man. Must be sober and have good character. Address P. O. box 267, City.

Burtz' Directory has been reduced from $2, the original price, to $1, and may be had at all drug stores or book stores. Only a few left. A complete directory and encyclopedia combined.

There never has been an event that should meet with more popular favor than the musical festival which opens this evening. It will furnish all lovers of music with the best opportunity to hear something good they have had in years.

A revival meeting has been on at Mt. Carmel Baptist church, colored, recently, and will continue until Sunday. The meetings are being conducted under direction of Rev. L. N. Robinson of Palatka, one of the most prominent colored ministers in the State, and his efforts are meeting with great success.

Dr. Frank McRae of Melrose, a prominent physician who is here attending the meeting of the State Medical Association, made The Sun a fraternal call yesterday. Dr. McRae is very enthusiastic in the work and believes this session will prove of great benefit to the members of the profession throughout the State.

Dr. Strouse requests The Sun to announce that the general admission to the Abel concert or musical festival tonight will be only 25 cents. He is particularly desirous of having a large audience, and has made this special concession. Let everybody turn out and welcome the Abel talent, the little Misses Till and others who are to take part. The program is guaranteed to be one of the best of its kind ever witnessed here.

J. W. Sheffield, a prominent wholesale hardware merchant of Americus, Ga., spent yesterday in this city. Mr. Sheffield states that he was here several years ago. He notes the great improvements, and expresses himself as being not only surprised, but pleased. "I have always told my friends that Gainesville was the best interior town in Florida," he said, "and now I am much gratified that they should believe I told them the truth, if they should come here and see." Mr. Sheffield is a native Floridian, having been born at White Springs, Hamilton county, and remained there until a young man.
